"POP" EYLER COMING

McHale of the Denver League Team Also Signed by the White Wings.

There will be two new faces in the White Wings line-up when they face the Lobsters in the struggle for the autumn championship next Saturday. The new angels will be none other than Bob McHale and "Pop" Eyer. The former player is an outfielder and carries a splendid record made with the Denver team this year. He is said to be heavy with the stick and holds one of the best hitting averages in the Western League. It is thought the management was induced to sign McHale on the grounds that the Lobsters being unable to get off during the season to play him.

"Pop" Eyer also hails from the Denver league team and is a pitcher. Eyer each day he is a winner. He has a manner about him that fools the batter and also the grand stand. He is a pitcher about to deliver he looks easy and every one expects to see him sent over the hill. The result is generally different and the batter wonders how it happened. While the local team is getting ready for business there seems to be doing in other directions.

The breeze coming from the direction of Ogden in the last couple of days have carried the rumor that the greatest ball team the state has ever seen is strengthening in order to whip the White Wings. A crowd of players known hereabouts as the White Wings. Since the recent victories of the local team it is said the wires coming will greet the public during the coming week. It is said that McHale, who is a right-handed pitcher, is a native of the city and has been playing in the league for several years. He has been signed and that Roy Evans, who lately left the Junction City for Colorado Springs, has been furnished transportation to come back. Hollingsworth, who played with the team last year, may also be seen with a Lobster uniform in the next few days.

MRS. BRACKETT, OF HEALY MINE FAME, SPENDING A FEW DAYS IN SALT LAKE

Mrs. A. H. Brackett, the central figure of the exciting times in Butte early last month following the decision of Judge Healy in the case of the Healy mine, is spending a few days in Salt Lake City. Mrs. Brackett and her daughter have been quietly occupying room 22, registered as residents of Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Brackett will remain here, a student in a local school, her mother's future movements have not been made public.

Mrs. Brackett will be recalled as having been mentioned as the source from which emanated the influence credited with having governed Judge Harney's decision, giving F. A. Heinze an advantage over the Amalgamated Copper company in a struggle over claims worth many millions. Charges and counter-charges, incriminations and re-incriminations filled the air until the judge finally left the country for a rest, declaring that Mrs. Brackett's name had been brought forward by a guest at the Kenyon. Since last Wednesday Mrs. Brackett and her daughter have been quietly occupying room 22, registered as residents of Salt Lake City.

IN MEMORIAM.

Schools Will Honor Memory of Dead President.

That Thursday will be generally and fittingly observed in Ogden by services in memory of President McKinley is assured. The board of education held a meeting yesterday in the afternoon to arrange for the observance of the day by the schools. In view of the fact that the governor's proclamation makes the day a legal holiday, it was decided not to hold the teachers on duty, but to have the children in each school building during the last hour of Wednesday. The rest of the board advised teachers and pupils to attend the various other memorial services to be held throughout the city in churches and places of public assembly. The county superintendent Wilson has issued a circular letter to teachers throughout the county, advising the closing of schools on Thursday and the rendition of the following programme on Friday:

Singing, "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Invocation.

Singing, "Our New President."

Benediction.

It will also suggest that the last words of President McKinley be written upon the blackboards as a motto.

His last words were: "I am glad to go. It is God's will. He will be good-by. It is God's will. He will be good-by."

His banks, postoffice and business places generally will be closed the same as Sunday, and the railroads will not have freight or deliver it on that day.

The line, as planned by the company, enters within a few miles of the north-east corner, comes down through the Ogden and Ogden canyons, and across the hills to Davis county by way of Utah.

Council Adopts Resolutions.

The city council transacted no business yesterday, but adjourned out of respect to the memory of President McKinley, after passing a resolution deploring his death and expressing his sympathy for the bereaved family.

The resolutions denounce all forms of anarchy, and called for the amendment of the constitution to provide for the exclusion of anarchists from this country. The resolution also called for an amendment to the constitution so as to make an attempt on the life of the president or vice president punishable as treason.
